

Mrs. Ferrell's Behavior Reflection Form

This form is due tomorrow. If it is not turned in before lunch tomorrow, you will have to write an additional behavior reflection during lunch. The form must be filled out thoughtfully and in complete sentences.

Today, Mrs. Ferrell had to correct your behavior two or more times. What were you doing that was not appropriate for a middle school math class? (Be specific. At least 2 sentences.)

How did your actions prevent you and your classmates from learning or Mrs. Ferrell from teaching? How did your actions effect the people around you? (At least 5 sentences)

Next time, what will you do instead? (at least 3 sentences)

What will you do if you are tempted to be disruptive again? (Be realistic. At least 3 sentences.)

I understand that my behavior in class was disruptive and prevented me from learning. It also made it difficult for my peers to learn and for Mrs. Ferrell to teach. If this behavior continues, I understand that a parent conference will be scheduled to address the issue.
